I don't care, I ship it. I don't care.

>This can't just be a bromance, who would write a show about that?

>I think the subtext in the second season's pretty clear,

>Don't tell me I need to calm downâ€"

I don't care, I ship it.

>I don't care, I ship it, I ship it.

26,27,28,29,30,31

BlackHeart303

That...would explain why you seemed so expressionless in the game, Frisk. The possession I mean. **

Frisk: Yeah, I just sorta default to my neutral expression whenever that happens. I look nearly identical to Chara when I open my eyes and smile.

I have yet to play Undertale, but I don't really want to risk falling into temptation, not with as likable characters as all of you gestures to everyone **

Everyone except Chara and Flowey: Thanks!

Chara: DO IT!

*Except you Chara, *but I guess you saw that coming. Now if I were playing Overlord, oh hoho, that would be a different story. Er, with you were like the characters from the game anyway. ****

Chara: I will shank you... Takes out knife

Frisk: Holds Chara back

*Seriously though, I have problems(not really, in irl), I even went on a Werewolf rampage in Skyrim, for the lols!. ****

Jax: Ah, the good old Skyrim werewolf rampage. I preferred the Ebony Blade though to be honest.

Speaking of werewolves, Alphyns, do they exist in your world?

Alphys: N-Not anymore...

K, gotta go, Gnarl just told me that SCP-101 for-profit OH FU-static... Ima ok.*

Jax: Sighs It's a goddamn hand bag with a mouth. What do you want with that thing...

18. Question 32

Guest

Puts everyone from the Storyshift and Taletwist AUs in the room.**

Jax: Slaps face They are already in this house. Why do people always want to overcrowd this room with extreme amounts of people...
Continues rant

Jerry: The Wi-Fi here sucks...

Jax: And don't get me started on this thing. Every time I try to ditch it, it just follows me around... Tries to ditch Jerry

Jerry: Clings to Jax

Jax: Chara, I'll let you kill exactly one thing today!

19. Important question, Question

33

SoulofPatience(Guest):

Sorry Jax. You said we can involve AUs and... there are some people out there who are AU fanatics (myself included). And they just want to have the opportunity to ask them questions when some of them don't have Tumblr or any of that shiz. And they also don't want to bother the big Q&As (Thriller Killer and Katya Playz) because there's a big chance that their questions are gonna get skipped. Not to mention the fact that most of the other smaller Q&As are either on hiatus, take very long to update, or have been taken down. I should know. I see that happening a lot. From Nichelle M to Rioblitz101e. We just wanna interact with our favorite characters across the Underverse instead of watching from the sidelines. So please be merciful on the reviewers or set up rules for this and that. We just wanna see them react and interact with our opinions and questions as if they're real. After all, isn't that what this Q&A is about?

Jax: I agree completely with you Soul. I love different AU's so much. Mafiatale at the forefront of all of that. Yet I haven't seen much popularity about it I love the idea behind it. I go looking for different AU's because there is always someone coming up with something completely new and thinking about it is awesome. Heck, the first question I answered was one for an AU (Underswap) and I loved it. However, the thing about the AU's is that no one is asking any questions to them. For example, People just say I put _ into the room and that is it. They don't come back later and say stuff like "I dare _ to do something with their AU selves." If they started to do that I would be overjoyed to make them interact or answer any questions people ask them. I try to update when I can but I have finals and AP tests just around the corner meaning that I can only answer so many questions a day. I am trying to be merciful but I want them to interact with the AU's, but no one is just asking them anything or involving them with anything. And yes, that is what this Q&A is about, just give me something to work with and I will try my hardest to give you guys what you want. And as for rules, no one has done anything stupid enough to have the need for them. The only thing that I can think would make a good rule is to not make fun of other reviewers.
